Molly Brough

Molly has had her knee operation and is making good progress. She will be away from Swans for a few weeks, but we wish her a speedy recovery.

Halliwick AST Event 16/05/2020

Following the success of the Halliwick Event in May 2018, there will be another one on 16/05/2020, to take place in Central London at Friends House, 173 Euston Road, London, NW1 2BJ. The event will take place from 10.30 am to 4.30 pm and is free to attend. The theme of the event is 'Halliwick, Past, Present and Future' and the day will include lots of interesting presentations and discussions which will not only be informative but will celebrate Halliwick and its people. The day will also include presentation of awards. There is lots more information on their website about the event at <https://halliwick.org.uk/affiliation/halliwick-astevent-16-05-2020/> and you can also book your place(s) through that page. If you have any specific questions about the event, you can email Ann Thomson from Halliwick AST at annmthomson@outlook.com or speak to Ann at Tuesday Swans (ann_gresswell@hotmail.com) who is one of the organisers of this Event.

New Year, Renew Membership!

Please don't forget to renew your membership if you haven't already done so. You should have already received an email, but if you haven't or you are concerned or unclear on what to do, please contact Matt Robinson via oxfordswans@gmail.com. Further reminder emails will also be sent out soon . Thank you!
